A TRIBUTE TO ROBBIE BURNS

When: Saturday 24th January 2009

Arrival at 7.30pm for sit down at 8.00pm

Dress: Smart, Possibly Kilts!

It's not just the Scots who'll be celebrating this January. Burns Suppers have been part of Scottish culture for about 200 years and is now an international event. Help us commemorate the life of Scotland's most famous son with a tribute Burns Night Supper. We'll be serving up a super supper of haggis, neeps and tatties, delicious desserts and a wee dram. Take to the floor for a traditional ceilidh, or watch the other dancers whilst you soak up the energy-charged atmosphere. The choice is yours.
